COMPASSIONATE DUES RELIEF PROGRAM APPLICATION

The CBA Alberta Branch Compassionate Dues Relief Program is available to lawyers practicing in Alberta who are struggling because of undue financial hardship or circumstances that impact their ability to continue to practice law in Alberta.

Name: _____

CBA Membership Number (if applicable): _____

Address: _____

City, Province, Postal Code: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENT

I certify that:

- I am facing undue financial hardship due to one or more of the following:
- a) unexpected events or unforeseen circumstances that have temporarily impacted cash flow
 - b) have been working for a year or more to establish my own practice
 - c) significant life events such as addiction, a relationship breakdown or death in the family that have impacted my ability to practice

I am not eligible for the CBA's national general Waiver of Dues program

I am prepared to join one of CBA Alberta's Sections (and pay any related enrollment fee) and attend meetings regularly

I understand that all applications are subject to the approval of the CBA Alberta Executive Committee or their delegate and will be approved at the sole discretion of the program administrators, who may request further supporting information. If approved to participate in the Compassionate Dues Relief program, my CBA dues will be covered by the CBA Alberta Branch for one year.
